

GUIDE TO RESOURCES
FOR PERSONAL AND MINISTERIAL ENHANCEMENT
For Members of the PCM Province

Begun as a project of the PCM Council elected in 2011, the Guide offers listings for spiritual, educational and ministerial enhancement. This Guide is an ongoing work in progress. It is part of the Council's commitment to provide Members with program resources for enhancing their personal and professional lives. Categories currently include spiritual, educational and ministerial topics, but other resources, such as medical, may occur in future publications.

Members are encouraged to contribute recommendations for new resources or commentary about resources already listed. Members are asked to sign their contributions, so that anyone wishing more details about the particular value of a resource may be in contact with the Member suggesting a resource.

Recommendations should currently be directed to Myron Judy, O.Carm. either by direct mail or by email. Members interested in a particular listing can check with Myron to see if he has more specific information about the resource or how beneficial other Members may have found a particular resource.

The fact that some program is listed should not be taken as a recommendation for that program. Likewise, non-listing may simply mean the compiler was unaware of the resource. The compiler appreciates hearing if a resource has ceased to exist or if incorrect information has been listed. Note also that the reader will find listings reflective of perspectives across the entire spectrum of ideologies. The majority of religious listings are Catholic, but some touch on all faiths. Since, because of their mission, many resources would qualify because of to be listed under all of the categories shown, searchers are encouraged to look in several places within the Guide for a possible particular listing.

This Guide will be updated periodically on the Carmelite Intranet. Members without access to such can contact Myron Judy, O.Carm. for information about particular resources.
